

Discover your Camden

Summer programme 2015

This summer, we invite the whole family to uncover exciting and inspiring activities around every corner.

With free and low cost festivals, exhibitions, workshops, and more, there's plenty to keep everyone entertained.

Make this a summer of discovery

This year's summer programme is set to be the biggest and best yet. Not sure where to start? Here is a taster of what's available:

Discover a new way to get active

Tuesdays: Practise your serve at Tennis Tuesdays for women, Waterlow Park, 7 to 8pm.

Wed 22 July to Fri 28 Aug: Swim for free at our leisure centres, weekdays, 2 to 4pm. See individual centres.

Discover a new world

Until Weds 14 Oct: Rediscover Tiger, Mog and Pink Rabbit at the Jewish Museum's Judith Kerr exhibition.

Sat 18 July to Sat Aug 29: Sign up for rewards with the Summer Reading Challenge at your local library.

Discover a new delight

Tues 21 July to Sun 9 Aug: Tête à Tête opera festival will be holding innovative performances at venues across King's Cross.

July, Aug and Sept: Enjoy activities such as music, dance and crafts at one of our many community festivals.

Discover a new talent

Sat 25 July to Sat 5 Sept: Open Open at Swiss Cottage Gallery offers the chance to professionally exhibit your own artwork and view others'.

Tues 28 July to Weds 26 Aug: Get creative with crafts at Kenwood House, Tues and Weds, 12 to 4pm.

Discover what's on your doorstep

Sat 22 Aug: Explore Camden's film and TV history with the Scenes on Screen walking tour, Russell Square tube, 11am.

Mon 31 Aug: Why not take a break and relax with a bank holiday BBQ in one of our local parks, or cool off in the Granary Square fountains?

Discover Camden 50

Mon 3 Aug: Join Camden's 50th anniversary party at the Roundhouse. Apply for tickets at LoveCamden.org

Until Tues 15 Sept: Capture what Camden means to you with our photography competition.

Full details and a list of special events at camden.gov.uk/Camden50

For the full programme of events, visit lovecamden.org/discover
Don't have a computer? Pop in to your local library and use one of ours.